

SHAHIRA FAHMY is an architect living and working in Cairo. Since 2005, Shahira H. Fahmy Architects has emerged as one of the most innovative design-focused practices in the middle-east with projects ranging from large scale urban and housing projects to interiors and product design. Her work strives to create a balance between new spatial concepts and existing context: culture, tradition, urban morphology and climate in the pursuit of a language that encompasses all fields of design.

Recent projects and awards includes: winner of Delfina foundation Architecture competition London 2012 in collaboration with Studio Octopi. Winner of Andermatt Swiss Alps Planning and Architecture Competition 2011, Switzerland. Gouna Red Sea apartment suites hotel 2011. The Designopolis -first design center in Egypt 2010-. Westown apartment Block 36 -2008: recipient of the Green Good Design Awards 2010 (Chicago Athenaeum), commended in the Architectural Review MIPIM Future Project Awards 2009, and shortlisted in the World Architecture Festival (WAF) 2009 and Dubai Cityscape 2009.
